

Manifesto for President of the BPP Students' Association

By MD Rafius Salehin

Hi everyone,

I'm running to be your Students' Association President because I care deeply about making your time at BPP the best it can be whether you're studying full-time, part-time, online, or on campus. I believe that every student deserves to feel heard, supported, and part of a real community.

My Vision: Support, Connection, and Opportunity

If elected, I'll focus on making your student experience more connected and meaningful by:

- Running hybrid events so both online and campus students can join in.
- Making sure you get faster academic feedback and clear communication from the university.
- Creating one easy-to-use online hub for everything: careers, wellbeing, societies, and volunteering.

I'll set real goals for these ideas and keep you updated so you know exactly what's changing and why.

Putting Students First

I know BPP students come from all walks of life—some are juggling work, family, or coming back to study after years away. That's why I want to make sure everyone feels seen and supported.

Here's how:

- Expanding the rep system to better include part-time, international, and distance learning students.
- Hosting regular forums and drop-ins, both online and in-person, so you can raise your voice easily.
- Working with BPP to improve mental health and wellbeing support, making sure it reflects your real-life challenges.

You shouldn't have to shout to be heard your voice matters, and I'll make sure it's listened to.

Leading Together

Being President isn't about one person doing it all—it's about working together. I'll:

- Collaborate closely with course reps, societies, and staff to turn ideas into action.
- Build strong relationships with BPP leaders so student concerns are taken seriously.
- Encourage a culture of teamwork and respect, where everyone has a seat at the table.

I believe in leading by listening and then delivering.

Turning Feedback into Action

I want to act on what matters to you, not just guess. That means:

- Using feedback from the NSS, PTES, reps, and surveys to guide every decision.
- Running quick polls and focus groups to hear what's working and what's not.
- Sharing updates openly, so you always know what's happening and how your input is shaping it.

Good ideas come from listening and I'll always listen.

A President You Can Trust

This role is about more than change—it's about representing you with integrity. If elected, I will:

- Always act professionally and respectfully.
- Stick to the Students' Association Code of Conduct.
- Treat every student fairly, no matter who you are or how you study.

Ideas That Make a Difference

Here are just a few things I'll introduce:

- BPP Connect – an online space to meet students, join study groups, and build community.
- A Peer Mentoring Scheme to help new students settle in.
- Career Accelerator Weeks with real employer sessions, interview prep, and CV clinics.

Let's build a better BPP together.

Vote MD Rafius Salehin for a more connected, supportive, and student-driven experience.
