

How to Write a Strong Manifesto: What We're Looking For

Your 500-word manifesto is your chance to show why you'd be a great President of the Students' Association. It's not about being the best writer – it's about sharing your ideas, your passion for students, and how you'll represent their voices effectively.

Here's what our panel will be looking for when reviewing manifestos:

1. Clear Vision

What's your big idea or focus?

Tell us what you want to achieve as President and how you'd go about it. A strong manifesto will be realistic, strategic, and clearly linked to the student experience.

 Tip: Avoid vague promises – focus on what matters most to students, and what change looks like in practice.

2. Student-Centred Approach

How will you represent all students at BPP?

We want to see that you understand the needs of our diverse student body – across centres, programmes, backgrounds and modes of study.

 Tip: Use inclusive language, show empathy, and think beyond your own experience.

3. Collaboration and Leadership

Are you ready to work with others to create change?

Great Presidents don't work alone – they collaborate with reps, the Association, University staff and senior leaders. Show us how you'd build strong relationships and lead with integrity.

💡 Tip: Think “we”, not just “I”.

4. Evidence-Based Thinking

Can you turn student feedback into action?

We're looking for candidates who use real student feedback, data or experience to shape ideas – and think about how to measure success.

💡 Tip: Mention tools like the NSS, PTES, reps or focus groups to support your ideas.

5. Professional Conduct and Ethics

Will you represent BPP and its students positively?

You'll be the lead voice of the student community – so we expect professionalism, fairness and respect in how you represent others.

💡 Tip: Make sure your manifesto aligns with the Students' Association President's Code of Conduct.

6. Fresh, Impactful Ideas

Do your ideas make a difference?

We want to hear what you'd do to boost student engagement, build community and improve experience across all BPP centres.

💡 Tip: Think about events, student life, careers, wellbeing, or representation initiatives – and how to make them impactful.

7. Tone and Presentation

Is your manifesto easy to follow and persuasive?

A strong manifesto is well-structured, passionate and clear. You don't need fancy language – just honesty, purpose and a student-focused voice.

 Tip: Read it aloud to check how it flows – and proofread before you submit.

Ready to Apply?

Once you've written your manifesto, send it to Represent@BPP.com with the subject header: Self-Nomination – Student President. Before submitting, double-check:

- It's no longer than 500 words
- It reflects the Code of Conduct
- You've shared real ideas for making change
- You're excited to lead with students, not just for them

We can't wait to hear your ideas. Good luck!
