

IF YOU HAVE FAILED YOUR ASSESSMENT, PLEASE SEE INFORMATION BELOW:

- RESIT DATES:

If you have failed an assessment (1st or 2nd attempt), you will be auto-enrolled in the next sitting. For dates, please refer to the HUB/VLE, links can be found here. Please note: the exams team are unable to provide any further information regarding resit dates, you will need to refer to the programme team.

If you know in advance of your exam that you will be unable to attend, then you must apply for extenuating circumstances, to delay your examination to the next available sitting. For further information on deferrals please click here.

- RESIT FEES:

Resit exams are charged at £75 per module, please make sure your resit fee is paid using the following link. You must pay your resit fee prior to any resit.

- FAILED 3rd ATTEMPT:

If you have failed your 3rd attempt of a module – this means you will have failed the overall programme.

If you were not able to attend your exam or something happened during the exam and you think it affected your performance, you will need to apply for extenuating circumstances. Please click here for further information.

If you are not happy with a decision the university has made in relation to you, your studies or your assessments, you are entitled to challenge this decision by following the Academic Appeals Procedure. Please click here for further information.

If you would like to restart your programme, you will need to get in touch with Admissions. You can reach them by calling 03300 603 921 or emailing admissions@bpp.com / internationaladmissions@bpp.com.

*NB: For LPC only: If you have failed Stage 1, you can carry on with Stage 2 and vice versa – you are able to re-do each Stage but that means overall you will only get a 'Completed S1 and S2'
