

Ceremony etiquette.

BPP University have compiled some rules of etiquette for graduands and guests to ensure the smooth running of the day.

For graduands

- Please put all phones on silent
- No pets allowed apart from guide dogs
- Please clap for all graduates who cross the stage
- Please remove any chewing gum and earphones
- Please refrain from talking to your peers during the ceremony
- When your name is read out we encourage you to nod your head and doff your cap to the Ceremony Officiator as you cross the stage
- Enjoy your special day!

For guests

- Please put all phones on silent
- No pets allowed apart from guide dogs
- Please clap for all graduates who cross the stage
- When the graduand you are here to see crosses the stage feel free to whistle and cheer
- Please remain seated
- Please ensure young children stay seated on a guest's lap for the duration of the ceremony
- If your young child is getting noisy please take them out of the hall until they settle down
- Enjoy this momentous occasion with your loved ones!
