- 3.10 Nominations sent from a non-University email address and/or without the required information will be disqualified.
- 3.11 Nominations with poorly developed and/or poorly articulated manifestos will be disqualified.
- 3.12 A notice of valid nominations will be issued.
- 3.13 All elections will include an option for “No Suitable Candidate” or “Re-Open Nominations” at the discretion of the Officer.

4 Campaigning

- 4.1 Due to the distributed nature of the University, candidates are not eligible to campaign beyond their manifesto being shared with all Members via the Association website.
- 4.2 Candidates are not permitted to produce posters, flyers, handouts, podcasts or other written or electronic forms of campaigning material beyond their manifesto.

5 Electoral System

- 5.1 The electoral system used is the first past the post vote system operated in accordance with the Procedures of the Electoral Reform Society of Great Britain and Ireland.

6 Polling

- 6.1 The election for President will take place using Smart Survey as an e-voting system.
- 6.2 Only registered University students will be eligible to vote.
- 6.3 Ballot paper for the position of President will be produced showing the names of all candidate(s) standing in the election.
- 6.4 The ballot paper will clearly display the date and time by which a vote should be returned.

7 Count

- 7.1 The Officer will arrange for the count to take place.
- 7.2 The count will commence only when the Officer has confirmed to the University that any complaints relating to the conduct of the election have been resolved.

8 Declaration

- 8.1 The declaration of President will take place on the Association website by the Officer, who in declaring the President will also confirm the count of all candidates who ran for election.
- 8.2 The Officer will confirm in writing to the University Vice-Chancellor, University Deputy Vice-Chancellor and the Chair of the Board the result of the election.

8.3 By-Elections

- 8.3.1 In the event of a President resigning from office or being required to leave office before their end of term and where more than 3 months of the term remains an election will take place for an Interim President for the remaining period of office. The Interim President can stand for election as President for a further term of 12-months.
- 8.3.2 Any by-election shall be conducted so as to comply with this Bye Law.
